

Angel Messenger to Jesus

Revelation 14:14-15 I{John} saw a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was someone like the Son of Man. He had a gold crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand. 15 Then another angel came from the Temple and shouted to the one sitting on the cloud, "Swing the sickle, for the time of harvest has come; the crop on earth is ripe."

- Who is "the Son of Man" "seated on the cloud" with "a gold crown on his head"? Could this be any other than Jesus, our Messiah?
- Why is there "another angel", were there others before? Yes, there were three previous angels in Revelation 14, each with different messages for the Earth. However, this angel had a message for Jesus.
- Where did this angel come from? He "came from the Temple" - must have been the Temple in Heaven.
- Who do you think gave this message to this angel? Could it be any other than "our Father which art in Heaven"?
- But, why would Christ's Father need to use an angel to send a message to His Son, Jesus? The common understanding today is that Father Jehovah is omnipresent -- everywhere present, but is that true? Where did Jesus say His Father was? Everywhere? Never! At least 20 times in the four Gospels, Father is always said to be "in Heaven" -- nowhere else!
- The phrase "the eyes of the Lord" is mentioned 22 times in the the KJV Bible. Some think this is a reference to angels. I plan to be working on a study of this soon.
- It has been said that God is omnipresent by His angels. That makes sense to me...
- More examples of how Angels are Messengers of God => Judges6:11-12; 1Kings19:5-7; Matthew1:20-21; Luke1:11-13; 2:8-14; Revelation1:1;

More about Angels

- Hebrews 1:7,14 And of the angels he{Father God} saith, Who makes his angels winds, And his ministers a flame of fire: ... 14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to do service for the sake of them that shall inherit salvation?
- Psalm 104:3-4 Jehovah ... Who maketh the clouds his chariot; Who walketh upon the wings of the wind; 4 Who maketh winds his messengers; Flames of fire his ministers;
- Revelation 5:8 ... Each one had a harp, and they held gold bowls filled with incense, which are the prayers of God's people.
- Revelation 8:3-4 Then another angel with a gold incense burner came and stood at the altar. And a great amount of incense was given to him to mix with the prayers of God's people as an offering on the gold altar before the throne. 4 The smoke of the incense, mixed with the prayers of God's holy people, ascended up to God from the altar where the angel had poured them out.

Conclusion

Here we see that Angels take our prayers to Heaven and bring messages from "our Father which art in Heaven" back to us. We also saw an angel bring a message to Jesus in Rev14:15 . Perhaps it was also an angel who delivered the prayers of Jesus to His Father. But, perhaps, most-interesting is that Father Jehovah sent a message via an angel to His Son, which challenges the traditional understanding of the omnipresence of the Almighty Sovereign God of the Universe.
